UNIVERSITY SUMMER SCHOOL.

A new department at the University Summer School at Charlottesville this season will be the course in household economics under the direction of Miss Edith G. Charlton, of the Extension Department of Iowa State College. The course, as outlined, contains a variety of subjects of vital interest to every woman in Virginia, and it has been designed to meet the needs of teachers, home makers and young girls. The work will be thoroughly practical and as far as possible individual instruction will be given in cooking and sewing.

Every morning, except Saturday, there will be lectures and discussions of food materials, comparing them as to digestibility, nutrition and cost. This is a subject in which every person, young or old, should have a keen interest because it is one which has to do with every phase of life. The diet of the young is one of the most important factors in the physical and mental development of the individual. The health of the individual means the general well-being of the community, the State, and finally the nation.

What we should eat, how our diet should be arranged and varied according to age, occupation, climate and individual requirements, and how it should be prepared and served will furnish subject matter for two profitable weeks of study at the summer school.

Home management will form the topic of the morning study for the second two weeks of the session. This topic includes such practical subjects as the division of the family income, allowing a reasonable percentage for food, clothing, shelter, etc. The time is past when good housekeepers are content to keep house from hand to mouth, as it were, thinking only of the wants of the moment without thought for the needs for tomorrow. Marketing, sanitation, home furnishing and general housework will be discussed scientifically and practically every morning except Saturday for two weeks.

RESCUED BY AN ENGINEER.

A dispatch from Fon du Lac, Wis., says: Bringing his fast express train to a sudden stop to leap from his cab into the waters of Mud Creek, Engineer J. A. Tymian, by a thrilling quick swim and dive, achieved a thrilling rescue of a drowning boy.

Tymian is a passenger engineer on the Wisconsin Central, and when approaching Mud Creek, near Hilbert Junction, on his run from Manitowish to Neenah, he caught sight of the lad seated midway on the bridge fishing, wholly oblivious to the approaching danger.
There was an instant closing of the throttle and an application of the air, but before the train could be stopped the bridge had been passed.

The boy in his fright either jumped into the water or was swept off by the train. When Tymian leaped from his engine the little fellow was struggling in the stream below, absolutely helpless.
The engine driver plunged down the bank into the water, wading, swimming and finally diving to reach the boy, and emerging a few moments later with the victim almost exhausted.

The boy was taken to Collins and turned over to the care of a physician, while Tymian, after finishing his run at Fon du Lac, reported the affair in a performance way to his superintendent.

THE GOULD DIVORCE CASE.

That Frank J. Gould, half crazed by jealousy of his beautiful young wife, had for years kept her surrounded by private detectives, in the guise of servants, while Mrs. Gould in her turn had filled his yacht with a crew of gumshoe men in her employ, where some of the revelations made yesterday in connection with New York's latest millionaire divorce scandal.

Following the serving of a summons yesterday on Mr. Gould in a suit for absolute divorce, there came the announcement yesterday that Mrs. Gould will seek her freedom on statutory grounds. The most sensational feature in the action has to do with an episode on Mr. Gould's yacht, the Helenita, in which a beautiful young singer, whose name has not been divulged, played the leading part.

It will be alleged, according to report, that Mr. Gould has for several years been having this woman's voice trained for the grand opera stage under the best masters in Europe, and that she accompanied him on long cruises in his yacht. The specific act of misconduct with the young woman will be alleged, said, to have taken place some three or four years ago off Sidney, Nova Scotia. This, it is said, is only one of a number of acts of misconduct to be alleged by his wife against the multimillionaire son of the late Jay Gould.

A NEW DRUG LAW.

The legislature made radical changes in regard to the sales of medicines in the State of Virginia. In the first place they advanced the state board of pharmacy to a position almost if not quite equal to that of the board of agriculture. They provided a room for them at the Capitol and made an appropriation of $6,000 for their support.
They left the making of many regulations, which have the force of law, with the state board of pharmacy and at the same time that board made some changes which it will be well for merchants and even physicians to know.

Under the law as it will stand after the 26th of this month, when all its provisions go into effect, no physician will be allowed to make any charge for any medicine supplied any of his patients.
In prescribing narcotics, opium, morphia, or similar articles, the physician must put on the prescription the full name and address of the patient and sign it with his full name.

To sell cocaine is now a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary. The possession of cocaine is regarded as prima facie evidence of selling except that it may be handled by druggists, physicians, dentists and veterinary surgeons.

Merchants are allowed to sell certain drugs, but under various regulations.
In original packages only can be sold tincture of iron, quinine, calomel, sweet spray of nitre, cream of tartar, essence of Jamaica ginger, paraffin, laudanum in packages not over two ounces, and proprietary medicines, but the labels on the latter must contain distinct statement of the disease or diseases for which it is intended and the directions for its use. If it contains any poisons the label must show the quantity. This applies to druggists as well.

In broken packages they may sell the following, but each package put out by the merchant must bear a label showing its contents and must have the name and address of the merchant selling.

The articles included in this list are alum, sulphur, borax, copperas, saltpeter and Epsom salts.

The board will grant permits to merchants to sell for one year the following, which cannot be sold without permits and which can even then be sold only in original packages: Bateman's Drops; Godfrey's Cordial, Dawee's Cornuine, Opodel Dock, Number Six, Blue Stone, Paris Green, London Purple, carbolic acid and insecticides or poisons used for destruction of pests or diseases of trees and plants.

The above information is of much value to merchants.
